VISITORS: Susan Thompson spoke to council about the scrap yard on Lincoln Avenue and shared pictures and brought in a box of items that end up on the road and ruin their tires. Also said vehicles block the road and are going too fast on the road. There was some discussion on this matter as to how to handle this situation whether no parking signs needed put up or sweeping of the streets. Police Chief spoke to council about the canine dog Baxter and officer wanting to buy the dog. And that the canine program is a good program. Dogs range in price from $7,000-$15,000 and depending on what is available in the breed of dog. Dogs take 6-8 weeks to train and it is lots of responsibility for a handler.

MAYORS REPORT:
